"Doughgirl Dolls" Wear Authentic Aprons

Mrs. W. Drury Woodson, of Appomattox, was the "Doughgirl" of the War Between the States and her picture is being held by Mrs. W. Webster Babcock (above) talking with Mrs. T. C. Harvey, Sr. who sews authentic 1860 dresses for the "Doughgirl Dolls" created by her grandson, William Harvey. This year, some of the "Doughgirls" given as gifts by Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Nettie D. Martin (seated, at right) will be wearing aprons made from a black and white calico dress worn by the original "Doughgirl", who fed both Union and Confederate soldiers in April, 1865 as they left Appomattox to return to their homes following the end of the war. Little Traci Ann Paulette (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Paulette and granddaughter of the Babcocks and the E. W. Paulettes is among those who will receive a doll. Others will go to W. B. Babcock, Jr., as a family keepsake. Also, to Patricia Paulette, Jean Lusardi, Teresa Lusardi, Joe Lusardi and Virginia Godwin Lusardi. Also, to William Herndon, II, Elizabeth Herndon, Carolyn Virginia Herndon. Also to Kimberly Gay Dresser, Janette Dresser, Mary Moses Dresser, Susan Boyce Dresser, David Charles Dresser, Frank Charles Dresser, Thomas Maxwell Dresser, James Edward Dresser. Some of the dolls shown above are lying in the "Doughgirl's" doughtray, owned by Mrs. Babcock. Mrs. Harvey has in her home the sleeve board, scissors and iron owned by Drury Woodson, the "Doughgirl's" husband, who was a skillful tailor. The Woodsons had several children, and members of the Moses family, the Harveys, Waltons, Jamersons, and Woodsons, are all descendants. Mrs. Gladys B. Woodson (Henry P.) is a daughter-in-law of attorney John Woodson, son of the Drury Woodsons, whose law office is preserved at the Appomattox Court House National Historical Park.

hryn is a junior at University of Oregon. Kim is a freshman at Univ. of Oregon. Ah yes, and Virginia is a substitute teacher, this time Victor di Marco, of Columbia, South America, and for Christmas there will be two extra guests: soldiers from a nearby Army Camp. There is much more, but I thought you, too, would be proud of what a spendid career this Appomattox girl has had, and how proud we are of them. They named her right: Christian, and Virginia.

And now to sign off; thanks for reading and a Merry Christmas, 'til the sun grows cold
And the stars are old,
And the leaves of
The Judgment Book unfold."

P.S. If I have been "long-winded" it is because this is written on my birthday, and I have been a long time getting here.

Payments To Be Made On Wool Sales

Payments will be made beginning about the first of April on marketings of wool and mohair completed in 1970 and reported by January 31, 1971. So reports J. P. Alvis, Jr., Chairman of the Appomattox County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, who reminded producers that the 1970 marketing year under the wool and mohair program ends Dec. 31.

Wool payments are based on the difference between the incentive price (72¢ per pound of shorn wool marketed in 1970) and the average national price for marketings during the year. Wool and mohair sales made after December 31, 1970, will not be eligible for payment until early 1972.

Incentive payments are made through ASCS county offices to all producers who file applications and present the necessary sales receipts and other records.

Mr. Alvis reminded producers that sales documents must show all details of the sale were completed during the current marketing year -- including passing title to the buyer. There must also be a record showing either actual delivery or transfer of control of the wool or mohair to the buyer. The buyer's total purchase price must be clearly stated, also.

Proof of ownership for at least 30 days is an important requirement, the ASC Committee Chairman said.

To be eligible for payments, producers must own for at least 30 days the livestock from which the wool or mohair was shorn and the unshorn lambs on which they apply for payment. Records must be presented which clearly establish compliance with the 30-day ownership requirement.

Requests for 1970 marketing year payments under the National Wool Act may be filed with the Appomattox County ASCS Office, as soon as the sales documents are available, but should be filed no later than Jan. 31, 1971 to ensure early payment.

New Star Over Appomattox

Last week a new star shown in the sky over Appomattox -- the multi - colored star atop the 130 foot tower at Appomattox Radio and TV Service. Steve Poole did the climbing -- strung colored lights on the tower -- then topped it with the Fire Department's big star. It glows for miles. How does Steve like climbing 130 feet in the air? He says he climbs AT NIGHT and keeps looking up not down!

Raiderettes Beat Rustburg 34-22

The Appomattox Raiderettes put up a strong defense and shut Rustburg girls out in the fourth quarter and came home with a 34-22 win in a girls Seminole District basketball game at Rustburg last Tuesday night.

Appomattox led 7-3 after the first quarter, but had their lead cut to a 14-12 halftime margin. Both teams hit for 10 points in the third quarter and it was still Appomattox by two points, 24-22. In the fourth quarter it was all Appomattox as they outscored Rustburg 10-0 to win going away 34-22. Becky Harris sparked the last quarter drive by hitting for six points, coming on driving and twisting layups. Pat Ferguson led the Raiderettes for three quarters with 12 points, Ferguson led all scorers with 13 points and Harris was also a standout on defense.

Carolyn McCoy led Rustburg with 10 points before fouling out.

Appomattox outshot Rustburg from the floor with 13 goals to seven. Due to the large number of fouls called, Appomattox hit eight of 14 and Rustuburg eight of 28.

Appomattox is now 4-0 and it was Rustburg's first lost.

Appomattox got the lead at 42-41 with 5:33 left in the game and in the last couple of minutes, the rebounding of Robinson and Rosie McCoy getting the ball on the fastbreak to Bruce Norconk or David Johnson who kept hitting Walton Gafford with perfect thrown passes for easy lay-ups and they opened it up then. Gafford dropped in 15 points in that quarter and wound up with 27 for the game.

Appomattox ended up shooting around 40% from the floor for the game after a slow start and Brookville's percentage fell off late in the game, as they ended up a little better than 30%.

The Raiders held a slight edge in rebounds and had way more turnovers than Brookville.

Appomattox had three men in double figures with Gafford's 27 being high for the game. He was followed by Norconk with 12 and Robinson with 10, McCoy led Appomattox with 13 rebounds and Robinson gave him plenty of help.

Frank Gough led Brookville in scoring with 20 and rebounds with 16. Byrd had 16 points for Brookville.

State Chairman For '71 March

NEW YORK -- Mr. Richard D. Obenshain of Richmond has been appointed Virginia State Chairman for the 1971 March of Dimes by Mr. Basil O'Connor, President of The National Foundation -March of Dimes.

Mr. Obenshain will lead the efforts of thousands of March of Dimes volunteers in Virginia during the traditional January campaign to raise funds to prevent birth defects.

Mr. Obenshain, who has served as both Campaign Director and Chapter Chairman of the Metropolitan Richmond Chapter of The March of Dimes, is a partner in the law firm of Obenshain and Hinnant. In 1969 he was the Republican candidate for Attorney General of Virginia. Prior to 1969 he was a partner in the law firm of McGuire, Woods and Battle.

Stressing the importance of the task facing Mr. Obenshain and his co- workers, Mr. O'Connor pointed out that more than 250,000 American babies are born with major defects every year. Of this number, approximately 5,400 babies are born with major defects in the state of Virginia each year. Birth defects are also the nation's second greatest destroyer of life, claiming approximately half a million unborn babies each year and killing 60,000 of our children and adults.
